

DAM & LEVEE RESILIENCE WEBINAR SERIES

The SAME San Francisco Post is hosting a series of virtual webinars focusing on Dam and Levee Resilience on the West Coast, a collaborative event between the Federal Government, State and Local Governments, Regional Agencies, and the private sector. Stakeholders of all kinds will be coming together in a platform designed to foster cross-sector collaboration, in a series of talks regarding the risks, challenges, and policy updates facing our aging infrastructure. The safety and security of dams and levees is paramount; please join us as we discuss the concerns and challenges associated with maintaining these critical structures.
